Located in a very pleasant locale, off Burlington Avenue, the project includes 40 separate apartments and a large combination Community Hall and Office.

A large group of invited guests are expected, in addition to the large number of Wilmington residents, and friends of the project who are expected to attend.

Ernest B. Rice, Chairman of the Wilmington Housing Authority, will preside, at the ceremonies.

LOUIS F. MUSCO, STATE HOUSING CHAIRMAN, TO DEDICATE HOUSING PROJECT

Louis F. Musco, Chairman of the Massachusetts State Housing Board will formally dedicate the Wilmington Housing for the Elderly project, at the conclusion of the Open House period, 4 pm Saturday.

Well known in both educational and sport circles, Mr. Musco has had an active career.

A Boston College graduate, who participated in all the sports, a former teacher and coach, he served on the Poston School Committee, and was the Treasurer for part of his tenure.

He is the Chairman of the state-wide Committee for School Aid, the founder and president of the Bay State Academy a private school, and is president of the Massachusetts Council for Private Schools, now serving his seventh term in office.

A former Associate Commissioner of the Metropolitan District Commission, he was for a time Acting Commissioner. He has received a citation as the Outstanding Alumnus of Poston College, 1951-52, and was awarded a citation by Mayor Hines of Boston, in 1955, for his work in the field of Education.

ST DOROTHY'S GIRLS IN UNDISPUTED FIRST PLACE

St. Dorothy's Girls' Softball team is in undisputed lead in the Lowell CYO Deanery League. The season opened last Saturday, with a crushing 35 to 12 defeat over the girls of St. Michaels.

The Lowell girls had their headache administered at the Town Memorial Park, by a much more experienced team of Wilmington girls.

Ruth Sullivan, star pitcher of St. Dorothy's hit two home runs, in addition to a double and a single.

Ellen Leahy, centerfielder, hit a homer and five singles. Virginia Dawson, second base, made a homer, for her only hit of the game.

Donna Burnham, catcher, shared in the batting honors, with a triple, two doubles and three singles, six hits for seven times at bat.

Kay Leahy, a newcomer, playing for her first year, showed promise of heavy batting by getting four singles for six times at bat.

St. Dorothy's scored three runs in the first, three in the second, and 12 in the third, to put the game on ice.

St. Michael's scored 11 runs in the last three innings, but the game was beyond hope.

St. Williams Sunk Tuesday evening, June 23rd the St. Dorothy girls had the pleasure of sinking their arch rivals - St. Williams of Tewksbury, at Tewksbury.

Ruth Sullivan had control of the game all the way, allowing only seven hits, and facing only 29 batters.

Donna Burnham, catching for the first time this year, made a fine record with four pop flies snagged.

The Wilmington infield girls had a busy night, with ground balls and pop-ups, but were successful in every case.

The game started with a tight pitching duel between Ruth Sullivan and Betty McCarthy as the Wilmington girls scored one in the first and one in the second to hold a two to nothing lead at the end of three innings.

Wilmington broke loose in the fourth inning to score four runs, with three hits, two walks, and two errors.

St. Williams spoiled a shut-out game in the fifth, when Betty McCarthy came through with a timely single, with two on, and two out, for St. Williams' only runs.

Sheila Maloney, of South St. Tewksbury, a newcomer to the St. Dorothy's team showed real promise at the bat and in the field. She collected three hits in four times at the bat, and played a flawless game in the field.

Ann Sullivan had a perfect night, four hits for four times at the bat.

PROPOSE TRIBUTE TO TOM DALY ON WILMINGTON COMMON

Friends and neighbors of the late Thomas C. Daly, of Andover Street have proposed that they pay for part of the tree and shrub planting program, on Wilmington Common, as a tribute to Mr. Daly.

Mr. Daly, a farmer of Wilmington for over 40 years, and a former member of the Finance Committee, was a man who engaged in many charitable enterprises without fanfare or knowledge of others.

The Wilmington Planning Board has not yet had an opportunity to meet and discuss the offer.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL FRIDAY

The annual Strawberry Festival of the Baldwin Civic Association, Inc., will be held in the Chestnut Street clubhouse, between the hours of 6 pm and 8 pm tomorrow.

Special arrangements are made for children.

WHY APPOINT ADVISORY MEMBERS?

Last Sunday, in the Town Hall 27 of our Town Fathers sat down to a 3½ hour session, principally to argue a nearly unexpressed subject -
the so-called Round School.

The meeting, called by the Selectmen, was a direct result of a blow up in the Finance Committee meeting of the previous Thursday - a meeting which, because it was improperly advertised was one of the reasons our Town Meeting
had to be postponed.

At the Thursday meeting several members of the School Committee had statements to make which, mildly put, surprised the Finance Committee, and the Permanent Building Committee which was also present.

The School Committee objected to the Boutwell Street site. They objected to the placement of the building on the site. They objected to the number of rooms proposed.

Our Permanent Building Committee has met every Tuesday, for the past year. They have also had frequent Thursday meetings. There are a number of officials who are advisory members of this committee - representing the Finance Committee, the Selectmen, the School Committee,
the Planning Board, and others including the Police.

The function of the advisory members is to carry back to their respective committees the subjects that have been discussed, and the conclusions that have been reached.

In addition to this, in the past several months there were at least two joint meetings at which not only the representatives, but the entire committees were invited.

In spite of all these meetings, these joint efforts, in spite of the advertising in the newspaper, and other means of information, we had to wait until the Finance Committee hearing to bring up questions that had apparently been agreed to, by all concerned.

The differences of Thursday night were like a burst of thunder. They were totally unexpected. Members of the Finance Committee expressed amazement.

It is interesting to note that in the joint meeting of Sunday a lot of the differences were ironed out - but that joint meeting was really unnecessary. It also produced some rather interesting comments.

One of the Selectmen has pointed out that last year the town was told that a 15 room school was needed at Glen Road, to be followed within a year, by a 20 room school, to meet the needs of the growing population. Now, he points out, with a 12 room school at Glen Road
the School Committee has stated that they need only 8 rooms for the next year, not the twenty that was said to be needed a year ago, nor the 12 that had been agreed upon in the various meetings for Boutwell Street.

He is, to put it mildly, quite upset by the whole thing.

Another comment, by a prominent School Committee member, was that the town should wait,

SUSIE'S

and not start construction at all of the Boutwell School. He was perfectly willing to risk the need of double sessions, in 1960, rather than to plan to build now. He may have had valid thoughts on the construction of the new school - it was the proposal to risk double sessions that amazed all his listeners. Such a proposal, we hazard, has never before been made by any school committee member of Wilmington, except in some of the extreme emergencies of the past.

A third comment that was made, by a member of the school delegation, received its share of comment from others present.

This gentleman didn't like round schools.
Perhaps we can understand that. But, surprisingly, he didn't like the square school, proposed by the Permanent Building Committee, who, after the Sunday meeting was over, recalled that this gentleman had fought valiantly, a year ago, for a square school. He now preferred the round one to the square one.

All of which leads to the question - why appoint Advisory Members, when the fight is going to be delayed until the last moment anyway?

(In all fairness, we should point out that neither the Selectmen nor the Planning Board were party to the disagreement. They were aware of all of the plans, and they shared with the Building Committee the surprise at the developments of last Thursday.)

THE BOUTWELL STREET SCHOOL - PRO AND CON

In one sense it is fortunate that there has been a delay in the Town Meeting, until next Wednesday. It may give a few people time to do some more thinking, before the meeting.

For there are criticisms of the proposed "Circular" Building, criticisms coming from members of the School Committee. They would rather have a different type of building.

The School Committee holds, possibly with good reason, that the corridors are too narrow,
and that there are insufficient toilets in the
"Circular" school.

The original plans for this school were modified slightly, in one respect, and no complaint of which we are aware was heard on the other, at the time of its inception. The State Department of Public Safety approved of the plans, and the State School Building Assistance Commission, which is almost notorious for insistance on toilets had no complaint.

But perhaps the complaints are valid. No one would be foolish to maintain that the work of man cannot be improved.

The unfortunate thing, at the moment, is that we still haven't an ample test of the new type plan school. It might be the very best school ever built. It might not be. We do not know, as yet. We have school plans that are the most economical known, at the moment. Are they adequate?

So we may expect an amendment on the floor
at the coming Town Meeting. The article is deliberately written so that amendments may be introduced. We feel that the School Committee will ask the town to vote for something other than a "Circular" School.

Other Plans

There are two other plans available, in the Permanent Building Committee's thinking - a so-called "square" school, and a so-called "Y" school. These plans, which are only tentative at the present time, have been discussed with various town officials. Briefly they may be said to have the following costs, all on the Boutwell Street site:

| | Square Sch. | Circular | Y Shaped |
|--------------|-------------|-----------|-----------|
| Construction | $360,500 | $325,000 | $400,200 |

TOWN NOTES

The Green Green Grass
We can assure our readers
that Ireland, the famed home
of the green green sod never had it better than New England
when it comes to color, as it is at this moment.

Our grass and trees, well fed by the heavy rains, and just as well washed are a very luxuriant green. We never saw it better. The Common, with its new coat of grass, is a thing of beauty.

We had 1.12 inches of rain in the week ending Wednesday at 8 am. So far we have had a total of 4.84 inches during the month of June.

The Pea-Spoon Award

Let the name of Eddie Hogan, 254 Glen Road be craven with golden characters upon our mythical Golden Pea Spoon, for the year 1959.

Eddie, who had peas from his garden for dinner on June 14th,
has no contestants, this year,
for the early honors.

Fast Service

We were very surprised to hear from a friend in Wakefield, at 2 pm Monday, that he had just received his invitation to the Dedication of the Housing for the Elderly Project.

We happened to know that it had been dispatched from the Wilmington Postoffice only 3½ hours earlier.

Something must have happened
to the Postman who never stumbles on his way.

Sad Tale

Dick Ethier Jr has the sad tale of the week, when it comes to fishing.

Dick, and Futch McPeeters
spent five hours, Monday night
up at Foster's Pond, bass fishing.

Dick hooked onto one that must have weighed in at about five pounds - but the bass
just danced across the water and then spit out the plug.

The plug traveled about 20 yards, as friend bass got rid of it. Some sort of a record - the crying towel kind.

We don't know who the youngster was, but a friend of ours
reported a 10 or 12 year old boy lugged a five pound bass
up Glen Road, Saturday evening
- evidently caught at Silver Lake.

Bass are still good, for some unknown reason at Welch's. We have had several reports of two and three pounders.

Rusty Frabant, the taxi driver came home with a three pound bass, from the Shawsheen
which he caught near Fallard-vale.

Perfect Move

Ernie Shea is a man who built his own home, up on Fallardvale Street. He built it entirely (outside, that is) of bricks and cement blocks.

Ernie had to move his home,
because of the new highway,
and there was an excellent chance that the house might possibly fall to pieces, before it arrived at its destination.

There was no sill, for the blocks - nothing solid on which to rest them.

The house arrived at its new location, on Salem Street, Tuesday afternoon, and we are happy to report that there was only one slight crack - a phenomenal job of house moving.

Porter & Desmond, to give them the credit, were the people who did the job.

CARD OF THANKS

Words are idle in my desire to express my appreciation of the proposed tribute to the memory of my

my thanks to the many for their expressions of sympathy in my grief.

So Much Pain....
Gives Little League Pain...
Only One Game

Mike Anderson pitched and batted the AVCO Yankees to their ninth win of the year on Tuesday night, 10-5 over the Unit Packet Tigers. Mike hit his sixth home run of the year to lead the Yankee hitting and choked off a Tiger rally when he went in to relieve Duke Garland on the mound.

Wednesday morning standings in the Little League after a moist week with little activity were:

| | W | L | Pct. |
|---------|---|----|------|
| Yankees | 9 | 3 | .750 |
| Indians | 6 | 4 | .600 |
| Red Sox | 5 | 5 | .500 |
| Tigers | 2 | 10 | .167 |

Wildcats Scramble, 5-4

Finding themselves on the losing end of a 4-0 score in the second inning Tuesday, the Wilmington Pony League team fought an uphill battle before finally scoring the winning run on a bases-loaded walk in the sixth-inning to top the Reading Auto Club, 5-4. This was the locals sixth win in seven games played and it kept them in second place, just one game behind the Reading Y's Men team.

Two bases on balls preceded Reading pitcher Bob Lincoln's home run in the first inning to get the visitors off on the right foot. The hit that did the damage was lined into right center field, splitting the fielders and rolling all the way to the swamp where it dropped into the water. The fourth Reading run scored in the second inning as a result of fielding lapses on the part of the home team.

-A Run At A Time-

The Wildcats first counter came in the last half of the second inning on a base on balls with three men on. Jim McFar's triple and Ricky Frotten's single made it 4-2 in the third.

In the fifth, Frotten walked to lead off and Eddie Casey reached on an error. With men on second and third and one out, John Cavanaugh dropped a perfect squeeze bunt down the first base line and the Wildcats had their third run and a potential fourth standing on third base. Ronnie Outridge lashed the next pitch into right field for two bases and a tie ball game.

Winning Run

Here is how the winning run scored. Mike Farrell opened the sixth inning with a line single over the third basemen's head. A fielder's choice that got nobody out and a base on balls to Ricky Frotten loaded the bases with two down. Joe Peaton worked Lincoln for a walk and the run which turned defeat into victory.

Howe Run King

Mike has now hit eight home runs in the last three years a record which we believe can not be matched by any other boy who has played in the Wilmington Little League. Even Mike's father, who hits the ball a long way in the softball league, will be asking for lessons pretty soon.

Next Game

The Wildcats next home game is scheduled for Saturday at 10:00 A.M. against a club from Stoneham, the Eagles, who came close to beating them in their only previous meeting, the final score being 3-2. The attendance at games this year has been very encouraging for the boys, but there is always room for more fans who want to see winning baseball. Come on out Saturday and lend them your support.

(The Construction Costs are plus or minus 5% with the exception of the "Circular" school, on which the Building Committee has had experience and is taken, we believe at 3%. The reason for the much smaller figure in Architectural and Engineering Fee, for the Circular School is that the town already owns the plans and only adaptation fees, etc., need be figured.)

Thus we have the figures, but not the arguments. The School Committee does not like the "Circular" school. The Supt. of Schools, likewise, does not like the plans for the "Square" school. The townspeople will probably hear a lot. next Wednesday.

CONFUSION IN THE SELECTMEN'S MEETING

May we take this opportunity to point out to our Board of Selectmen that there is a book entitled "Roberts-Rules of Order"?

Our Selectmen have been allowing listeners in the meeting room to participate in the general discussions. Perhaps they mean well, but the results have been almost disastrous at times.

It isn't the Selectmen themselves, so much, as the by-standers. Well intentioned, maybe, they have turned our Selectmen's Meetings into an "Irish Parliament", where everybody talks and nobody listens.

But the responsibility lies squarely in the laps of our Selectmen - no where else.

EXCUSE OUR OPINION

The past week has seen considerable fanfare about a place of amusement which has been opened up in our neighboring town of Wakefield. The people of Massachusetts are being drilled daily with radio blasts and other "information" about the wonders of this 200 acre place.

Excuse us, please. We are not impressed. It is merely 200 acres of gaudy tinsel, just like Revere Beach but with a newer and consequently (temporarily) better name.

HOUSING FOR THE ELDERLY

The people of Wilmington have been invited to an open house, Saturday afternoon, at the Housing for the Elderly Project, off Burlington Avenue. It is an opportunity they should not miss.

Located on Deming Way, a street named for our retired Town Accountant, Harry Deming, the project is, we believe, one of the most pleasant of its type in our Commonwealth.

There are forty separate apartments, each of four rooms. While the basic layout of each of the apartments is alike, there is enough difference in the decor to lend distinctiveness to each of them - and to make them pleasant and charming places wherein to live.

Some of our readers may recall that originally there was some dispute among our citizens as to the proper location for this project. We believe now that all such dispute is a thing of the past. The project is a pleasant addition to the town, and to the neighborhood.

In addition to the forty apartments there is a nice community hall, which is to be equipped with a television set, has a nice fireplace, and a private kitchen, so that small parties can, and undoubtedly will be held by the members of the Golden Age Club. There will also be washing machines, and other facilities in this same building.

The Social Concept of Housing for the Elderly, as developed in Massachusetts, and in the Town of Wilmington, is a pleasant one. There is no charity involved. The residents pay $48 a month, they pay for their light, and for their telephone. In forty years, at the most, the project will have paid all its bills, and experience shows that those projects already in existence are bettering this projection.

We extend our congratulations to the Wilmington Housing Authority, to the State Housing Board, to the Contractors, and finally, to the people of Wilmington, for creating one of the finest projects of its kind in Massachusetts.

TOWN COUNSEL TO GET

QUESTION ON DUNN PROPERTY

Town Counsel Philip Buzzell is to be asked, by the Board of Appeals, to rule on the meaning of a phrase in an agreement concerning the controversial Dunn gravel pit, off Concord Street.

The proposed pit, on 53 acres of land, was negotiated by Arthur Hallam, for Campanella and Cardi, and by Mr. Dunn, for himself.

In the agreement the phrase 'Dunn land adjoining the Campanella & Cardi property on the North side of Concord St, in North Reading' describes the territory involved.

Atty Richard Shepard, appearing for the Board of Appeals Tuesday night, at a Board of Appeals hearing in the Town Hall held that this phrase described land in Wilmington.

The Board of Appeals thought the belief questionable, and will present the problem to the Town Counsel.

A contour map was submitted Shepard, before the hearing began.

LETTER

No Wilmington Mass
June 22, 1959

Dear Larz:

I am a regular commuter on the P&M. I took the train every morning, from No. Wilmington to Boston, while the trains were still running. Now I take the train from the new Salem Street station.

I think this is a deliberate effort to keep people from riding in the trains. For three mornings in succession I have had to stand up, from Salem Street to Wilmington, and on two of those mornings I had to stand up from Wilmington into Boston.

We have to get out at Wilmington, and stand around 7 or 8 minutes in the rain, while we wait for the train from Lowell. When it arrives there are only two Budd cars, already crowded and into these are crammed another 50 or more passengers.

During this wait there is no chance to sit down in the Wilmington station. There used to be settees for the waiting passengers. Now the P&M has taken them away, and everyone is left to stand up.

I called Mr. Kelley of the DPU, in the State House, and he told me everything would be straightened out by Friday (last Friday).

There was no change as of today.

The P&M is being run in the same manner as the Mickey Mouse cartoons, and the patron is providing the comedy.

Yours respectfully,
M. J. Walsh

RAIN MOVES THE STINGERS INTO SECOND PLACE

Elia's Stingers moved into second place, in the Men's Softball League - thanks to a lot of rain, that spoiled two games.

The Townies and the Thunderbirds were rained out last Thursday, and the Merri-Macs and Polychemicals on the day before.

The Stingers achieved second place by a squeeze win over Weinberg's, a 10 to 9 score.

Joe Woods pitched an excellent game for the Stingers, and Bobby Fatters got four good hits, for the same team, to lead his teammates in batting.

The Stingers jumped off to a big lead, leading Weinberg's 10 to 2 and the end of the fourth.

The Stingers then hung on for dear life, as the Weinberg boys got a new spark in life, and fought back to score seven runs in the last three innings. Dave O'Connell's pitching made up for those first innings, and he was well backed up the fielders, but the effort was not quite enough.

Joe Wood's pitching slammed the door in their face with one run short, and Weinberg's boys ended up with their third defeat.

Methodists Win

The Methodist Church team defeated the American Legion boys seven to six, on Tuesday evening.

The Legion boys owe the Methodists a vote of thanks for administering this defeat, for it keeps the Legion team in for running for the cellar.

The game moved the Methodist team into a two way tie for the fourth and final play-off spot.

Pot Pourri

It looks like a tight battle for the first four positions in the league, as two points only, separate the first six teams. With the season just about half over, any thing can happen.

Oakie's catching for the Merri-Macs is on a par with his activities in all Wilmington sports.

As a catcher he is not only a hustler, but a talker whose voice and actions are such that one never forgets seeing Oakie in action.

Everybody in the league is hoping to see Oakie back in action soon. They miss him.
